

Local Knowledge
for Global Business

www.gratanet.com

GRATA International Kazakhstan will speak at the London International Disputes Week 2022

On 9 May 2022, the London International Disputes Week 2022 will be held in hybrid format (offline/ online).

Time: 09:00 - 10:30 (BST).

Venue: RPC, Tower Bridge House, St Katharine's Way, London, E1W 1AA.

London International Disputes Week 2022 is an opportunity for dispute resolution professionals from around the globe to discuss and debate the future of dispute resolution. LIDW22 will also feature a series of events hosted by LIDW members around the theme of Dispute Resolution – Global, Sustainable, Ethical? This year, LIDW will feature for the first time a day dedicated to international discussion of dispute resolution across several jurisdictions as we “follow the disputes sun” from Asia through to the West Coast.

Askar Konysbayev, Partner of GRATA International, Almaty will speak at the session dedicated to “London as a dispute resolution hub for disputes involving parties from Ukraine and Kazakhstan: disputes in turbulent times”. This session will address the enforcement of regimes in place before Kazakhstan and Ukraine courts. The session will also address Crimean disputes and the modernization of the arbitration rules in the region.

Please visit the LIDW website for more information and to register.

Practice areas

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Locations

KAZAKHSTAN