GRATA International Belarus has become a co-organizer and partner of the International Security Forum

On June 11, 2020, as part of the International Forum on Security of Belarus and Russia, a preliminary online conference was held on the security of business and customers from financial risks, cyber attacks, as well as the preservation of assets and intellectual property.

Addressing corporate security issues has become a strategic priority for any business and has provided it with a competitive advantage.

Russian and Belarusian colleagues and partners shared their personal experience related to the specifics of working in the security sector, talked about modern information and analytical support for security units and trends in the field of business security (legal security and information security) and trends in high technology.

The International Forum of Security Services of Belarus and Russia will be held on September 18, 2020 at the Center for Advanced Studies of Executive Officers of the Ministry of Finance of the Republic of Belarus.
