GRATA International in Legal 500 EMEA rankings 2016

GRATA International in Legal 500 EMEA rankings 2016

This month Legal 500 released its annual law firms rankings Legal 500 Europe, Middle East and Africa 2016.

GRATA International is happy to announce that it is among the leading law firms in 4 countries: Belarus, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan.

Lawyers of the firm in Uzbekistan were recognized for their work and projects in spheres like M&A, construction, natural resources, finance, debt recovery and representing the interests of international companies.

The appearance in the rankings of 3 Central Asian countries proved the status of GRATA International as one the dominant players in the region.

Legal 500 have identified the office in Kazakhstan as “a trusted adviser” in dispute resolution, corporate, employment arbitration and tax matters.

Lawyers of the firm in Uzbekistan were recognized for their work and projects in spheres like M&A, construction, natural resources, finance, debt recovery and representing the interests of international companies.

Despite Tajikistan being a relatively new market for global law firms, GRATA International has successfully done a number of projects in this country since 2007.

Arzinger&Partners, an associated office of GRATA International in Minsk, was placed among the leading law firms in Belarus. The ranking praised the activity of the firm, especially in areas like investment, banking and finance, dispute resolution and intellectual property. Legal 500 characterized the lawyers of Arzinger&Partners as “deeply committed” team has “a comprehensive knowledge of both national and international legislation”, and ‘always finds the best solution to every problem”.

Legal 500 conducts its annual independent research of companies which provide legal services in the majority of countries. The research, which is undertaken by a team of Legal 500 experts around the globe, highlights the leading firms and lawyers. The ranking Legal 500 Europe, Middle East and Africa is based on the results of firms activity in the past 12 months, including most notable projects, growth and development of the firm.
