On May 29, the deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic approved the draft law “On Public-Private Partnership”

Was approved A new version of the law “On Public-Private Partnership” in the second reading. The draft law was developed in order to simplify procedures and reduce time periods in the process of preparing public-private partnership projects, selecting a private partner, and reducing the time frame for holding a tender.

“During the discussion of the draft law in the first reading it became known that the current law “On public-private partnership” was adopted in 2009, but it did not work for several years. For its implementation were developed 8 regulatory legal acts, was created a fund for project financing. 17 projects worth $ 166 million have been implemented, including 4 projects in the health sector.
