GRATA International in Saint Petersburg, Russia

GRATA International is glad to announce the addition of an integrated office in Saint Petersburg, Russia. After going through transitional stage in its development as a firm and appreciating the benefits of the corporate systems and platforms, the opportunities and potential of the network, “Legal Studio” Law Firm, associate office in St. Petersburg (Russia), has reached a new milestone and will now become an integrated office “GRATA International SPB”.

This partnership is a strategically important decision, the synergies of such partnership will provide access for clients to the best legal service not only in the Russian Northwest but all countries covered by GRATA International.

We are certain that team of legal experts in GRATA International SPB, which is ranked among the leading Russian regional law firms by Legal 500, will successfully represent our firm in this region and will become a reliable partner in providing quality legal advice.

Akhmetzhan Abdullayev, Member of the Global Council of GRATA International Association:

“We congratulate our colleagues in Saint Petersburg on this wonderful occasion! The transition of our cooperation into full integration was made. We have cooperation which is proven by concrete actions. We share understanding and strategic vision that we are no longer operating side by side, but we are doing business together. Combined efforts will bring us closer to achieving an even bigger success in Russia, which is now our common goal”.

Vladimir Komarov, Managing Partner, GRATA International SPB:

“Over the past two years, we have significantly expanded our horizons and opportunities for our customers and do not want to stop there, so integration with GRATA International is a natural next step for us. The world is changing fast, to meet the changes to be in their vanguard—a serious challenge, to find the right team for this—half the success. I think we have all the chances to become dreamteam”.
