

GRATA
INTERNATIONAL

Local Knowledge
for Global Business

www.gratanet.com

Associate office ROD KURTMAN LEGAL law firm has become a fully integrated member of GRATA International

We are proud to announce the exciting news that the associate office of ROD KURTMAN LEGAL law firm is now fully integrated into GRATA International and operates under the brand name "GRATA International Armenia".

Since 2013, the Armenian office has been successfully providing professional legal services to both foreign and local clients in various fields, including construction, pharmaceuticals, telecommunications, information technology, mining, textiles, food manufacturing, and banking. Joining the GRATA International family in February 2022 as an associate office marked the beginning of our collaborative and productive work.

Dimitri Papadopoulos, Executive Director of GRATA International: "We are delighted that the effective and mutually beneficial cooperation with our Armenian colleagues has led to its reasonable expansion.

We share common business goals, values and principles that allow us to leverage our collective expertise and resources to develop optimal solutions that meet the needs of our clients in Armenia and other countries where GRATA International operates.

I am confident that the professional team of GRATA International Armenia will continue delivering high quality legal services and contributing to the Association's growth as an integral part of the GRATA International network."

The office is led by Khoren Nasibyan, who not only has extensive experience in supporting foreign investors, but also has an in-depth understanding of the local legal and business environment.

Khoren Nasibyan, Managing Partner of GRATA International Armenia:

"This integration marks a significant milestone in our journey as the global presence of GRATA International allows us to provide enhanced legal services and unmatched expertise to our esteemed clients. We are now better equipped to navigate complex legal landscapes, offer comprehensive solutions, and facilitate seamless cross-border transactions. Our commitment to excellence remains unwavering, and our full integration with GRATA International further strengthens our ability to deliver exceptional legal services tailored to the unique needs of our valued clients."

Locations

ARMENIA