Astana International Financial Center (AIFC) held a working meeting on January 9-10, 2020 in Almaty

A working meeting was held at the AIFC office in Almaty, where the final results of the work of the AIFC and its bourse (Astana International Exchange) for 2019 and plans for 2020 were discussed.

At the meeting, representatives of the AIFC and the legal community of Kazakhstan discussed current issues of applying the AIFC law, including the limits of the AIFC law in space and by subject, regulation and licensing of the AIFC participants, issues of currency regulation of AIFC participants, the AIFC court and the AIFC arbitration center, as also other issues emerging in practice.

Marina Kakhiani, partner of GRATA International law firm, came out with two presentations on the topics: "AIFC Law as a new legal system and its action in area and by subjects" and "Regulation of securities transactions in AIFC".
