The Atyrau branch of GRATA International jointly with the British Chamber of Commerce in Kazakhstan and Petrocouncil held a business breakfast

The Atyrau branch of GRATA International, represented by Partner and Director Zaira Sarsenova, jointly with the British Chamber of Commerce in Kazakhstan and Petrocouncil, the Council for the Development of Strategic Partnerships in the Oil and Gas Industry, held a business breakfast on the topic of liability of legal entities for environmental offenses.

Speaker of GRATA International Leila Makhmetova highlighted important issues in the field of environmental legislation, also shared legal regulation and practical recommendations in this area.

Representatives of such large industrial companies as Tengizchevroil, NCOC, Kazakhstan Petrochemical Industries Inc., Embamunaigas JSC, etc. joined us at breakfast for discussion.

As part of the business breakfast, the participants held networking and exchanged experiences.
