GRATA International Law Firm was represented at the SCO EXPO in the People's Republic of China

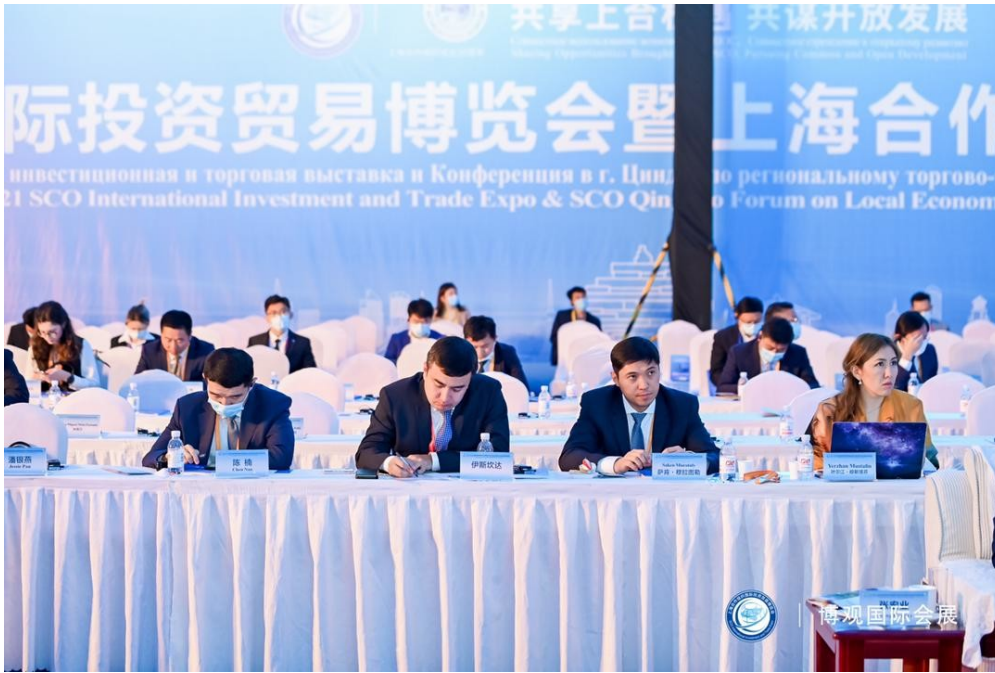

On April 26, 2021, the International Investment and Trade Exhibition was held in Qingdao on regional trade and economic cooperation of the SCO countries.

The forum is dedicated to the topic: "Exchange of opportunities for cooperation and the search for open development", as well as the opening ceremony of the EXPO.

The forum was organized to accelerate the construction of the China-Shanghai Cooperation Organization of the local demonstration zone of trade and economic cooperation, to strengthen the local economy and trade cooperation between the SCO countries and to promote business and cultural exchanges.

Within the framework of the Forum, meetings and discussions were held on the provision of legal services to Chinese companies in the implementation of their projects in the SCO countries, with the Counselors of the Embassies and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Azerbaijan, Tajikistan, Russia (established in Kazakhstan).

The sponsors were: the SCO Secretariat, the Chinese National Section of the SCO Business Council, the Shandong Provincial Department of Commerce, and the Foreign Affairs Office of the Shandong Provincial People's Government.
