

GRATA
INTERNATIONAL

Local Knowledge
for Global Business

www.gratanet.com

GRATA International at the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum 2019

GRATA International at the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum 2019

Representatives of GRATA International law firm Aidar Sarymsakov, Dmitry Gladkov, Irina Obukhova, Atabek Sharipov, Nodir Yuldashev, and Bakhodir Jabborov will take part in the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum 2019.

The St. Petersburg International Legal Forum was established in 2011 and is held with the support of the President of the Russian Federation and the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation. Over the years of its existence, the forum has become the leading global platform for effective dialogue between the state, business representatives and the legal community.

The business program of the SPILF 2019, along with the traditional legal topics, will touch on a number of topics related to the most relevant novets of law and economics. Among the speakers of the upcoming forum are recognized experts and practitioners in various fields of law, Russian and foreign government officials, world-renowned scientists, and heads of legal departments of major companies.

Locations

RUSSIA