GRATA International attended the Astana International Forum

On June 8-9, the Astana International Forum took place in Astana. The two-day event brought together the representatives from different countries, among which high-level delegates from foreign governments, international organizations (WTO, UNESCO, IMF, etc.), businesses who are working to find solutions to global challenges and promote peace and dialogue to maintain development and progress.

The program was dedicated to the theme of "Tackling Challenges Through Dialogue: Towards Cooperation, Development, and Progress," with four main themes:

- ▶ Foreign policy and international security;
- ▶ International development and sustainability;
- ▶ Energy and climate change;
- ▶ Economy and finance.

Dimitri Papadopoulos, the Executive Director and Representative of the Zurich office, along with Samat Daumov and Liya Akzhanova, Partners, Ainura Takeyeva, Counsel of the Astana office, and Issam Dahman, the Managing Partner of the Dubai office, participated as delegates in the Astana International Forum.
