Nasos A. Kyriakides, Managing Partner, Nasos A. Kyriakides & Partners

"Dear clients and colleagues,

Cyprus is an international business centre and a hub in the crossroad of continents, Europe, Asia and Africa, ideally suited for international business due to the numerous benefits and prospects for expansion its Geographical and political position has to offer. Being an EU and European Monetary Union Member State, and having an extensive network of Bilateral Investment Treaties, mainly with the EU and CIS countries, Cyprus combines a broad range of quality financial and business services such as legal, tax, accounting as well as major investment opportunities. The highly qualified, experienced and multilingual workforce, the low set up and operational costs in addition to the efficient business environment, accompanied by simple administrative procedures turns Cyprus into a very attractive jurisdiction for businesspeople and investors.

The long standing and very efficient cooperation between Cyprus and CIS countries is greatly strengthened with the presence of GRATA International, as it now brings the bilateral provision of legal services to a very high standard strengthening and adding the experience and professionalism of GRATA International, in the spectrum of provision of the services provided by the local Firm of NASOS A. KYRIAKIDES & PARTNERS LLC, aiming to create in this way a very beneficial cooperation between all members and strengthen the legal services provided to clients of GRATA Association, at a global level."

Andrew Gamble, Chairman of the Global Board GRATA International, Representative in United Kingdom

"We are delighted to welcome Nasos A. Kyriakides & Partners as our associate firm. It is so exciting to be working with a fast-growing firm in a country where we have not previously had representation. The reputation and success of Nasos A. Kyriakides & Partners will be a strong addition to our global association, assist the growth of its clients and fits perfectly with our business proposition as an association."
