GRATA International in Moldova

GRATA International in Moldova

We are honoured to announce that from February 2019 Popa & Associates (www.popa.md), a full-service law firm, represents GRATA International as an associate office in Chisinau, the Republic of Moldova.

This is another step in firm’s development which follows the strategy of enhancing the geographical coverage for delivering legal services. A strong team of professional lawyers will enable clients of GRATA International to receive quality legal advice, now in the Republic of Moldova as well.

Igor Popa, Senior Partner, Popa & Associates:

“The association with GRATA International is a decision which we are sure is going to deliver great results. GRATA International is currently offering the opportunity for our clients to have free access in countries that belong to the Euroasia, such as Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkey, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan or Russia. The standards applied by this international law firm will help us to improve our efficiency and deliver the best quality services to our clients, and shall give them access to new markets through a local partner from Moldova”.

Akhmetzhan Abdullayev, Senior Partner, GRATA International:

“GRATA International unites the best local law firms with huge growth potential. Popa & Associates meets all the standards and is one of such firms. Professional group of partners, excellent client recommendations, young and dynamic group of lawyers - these are key features of the new associate office in Moldova. Senior Partner Igor Popa, who is admitted to practice in Moldova and Germany, has assessed our offer with deep understanding and consideration and appreciated all advantages of full integration with GRATA International. We congratulate our clients on enhanced array of opportunities and access to a new developing market of Moldova!”
