Bakhodir Jabborov, Managing Partner, GRATA International, Uzbekistan:

"In the age of ongoing global changes and challenges it is a great honour and privilege for us to join our efforts with the professionals such as Arzinger & Partners (the Czech Republic) in order to provide our clients with geographically broader high quality legal services. Each of our firms brings years of experience and expertise, which give us even more confidence in achieving our common goal of becoming an international law firm of your choice".

Jakub Svoboda, Founding and Managing Partner, Arzinger & Partners:

"We are excited to announce our association with the network of law firms GRATA International. We believe, it is in the first place a great benefit for clients of both our firms. Establishing this remarkable relation is a strong step in gradual progress of our law firm and represents significant enlargement of our international activities. It is our pride to become the associated partner of GRATA in the very heart of Europe".
