GRATA International in Turkmenistan

GRATA International is proud to announce the expansion of its network by adding “Hukuk Consulting” as an associated office in Turkmenistan.

The establishment of a new GRATA International office will allow clients to receive comprehensive legal support with guaranteed quality in Turkmenistan.

“Hukuk Consulting” is one of the leading law firms in Turkmenistan with a reliable team of professional lawyers providing a wide range of consulting services and qualified legal support for businesses in the country.

Akhmetzhan Abdullayev, Member of the Global Board and Senior Partner, GRATA International:

“It is a great honor for us to join forces with the professional, energetic, and friendly team of “Hukuk Consulting”. Our clients will definitely feel the synergy of our cooperation. The establishment of the GRATA International office in Turkmenistan is a strategically important step for the Association’s activities in Central Asia. Joining GRATA International will allow our office in Turkmenistan to continue its dynamic development in the international market, providing its clients with top-notch service not only in Turkmenistan but also in all countries where GRATA International is present.”

Ikbal Said Alauddin, Managing Partner, Hukuk Consulting

“Today, Turkmenistan is successfully integrating into the global economic space and strives to achieve world standards in order to comply with international norms in the field of legal relations aimed at effective and dynamic economic development. High professionalism is of crucial importance in using legal mechanisms in all areas of civilized society. The integration of the law firm Hukuk Consulting with GRATA International will provide an opportunity for representatives of the economy in our country to make a quantum leap in the application and implementation of international law.”
