GRATA international warns of fraud cases

Dear Clients,

In order to prevent cases of fraud, GRATA International law firm informs you of the following.

Currently, unknown individuals falsely claiming to be GRATA International employees are offering services to recover funds invested in fraudulent schemes.

Unauthorized copying of design elements, text and images from the official GRATA website led to the creation of a fraudulent website grata.website through which the intruders act.

We hereby inform you that GRATA International Law Firm and all its offices, are not related to this website, and also do not provide the stated services to individuals.

If you have any concerns or if you come across any suspicious activities related to our presence on the Internet, please check this with the information available on the official resources of GRATA International.

For accurate information about the services provided by GRATA International Law Firm and contact details, refer to our official website: gratanet.com.
