GRATA International will participate in the Astana International Forum

The Astana International Forum is scheduled to take place in Astana on June 8–9, 2023.

The forum's mission is to foster international cooperation, peace through dialogue, and understanding on critical global issues, ranging from climate change to security and development.

The two–day event will feature hundreds of international speakers and moderators across 40 panels and side events.

The program is designed to address the world's key challenges. It revolves around the overarching theme of "Tackling Challenges Through Dialogue: Towards Cooperation, Development, and Progress," with four main themes:

- ▶ Foreign policy and international security
- ▶ International development and sustainability
- ▶ Energy and climate change
- ▶ Economy and finance

Representatives from GRATA International Kazakhstan, Switzerland, and the UAE will participate as delegates in the Astana International Forum. The delegates include Dimitri Papadopoulos, Executive Director and Representative of the Zurich office, Samat Daumov and Liya Akzhanova, Partners, Ainura Takeyeva, Counsel of the Astana office, as well as Issam Dahman, the Managing Partner and Paul Afif of the Dubai office.

For more detailed information, please visit the Forum's website.
