GRATA Law Firm signed a Memorandum of Understanding with GUS

GRATA Law Firm signed a Memorandum of Understanding with GUS

GRATA Law Firm and Global University Systems (GUS) signed a cooperation agreement.

GRATA will assist GUS in providing the high-quality legal training in the form of LPC (Legal Practice Courses) and BPTC (Bar Professional Training Courses) for professionals in the UK and Kazakhstan.

GUS is an international network of institutions of higher education offering business and finance courses. GUS institutions include London School of Business and Finance, University of Law in London, Toronto, Chicago and other large cities. There are currently over 40,000 student studying in GUS.

The Memorandum was signed by Rashid Gaissin - Managing Partner of GRATA, and Tim Slater - Head of Business Development at the University of Law.
