The Agreement on Trade and Economic Cooperation between the EAEU and its Member States with China has been ratified

The Agreement on Trade and Economic Cooperation

President of the Kyrgyz Republic Sooronbay Jeenbekov signed the Law of the Kyrgyz Republic "On ratification of the Agreement on Trade and Economic Cooperation between the Eurasian Economic Union and its member states, on the one hand, and with China, on the other hand, signed on May 17, 2018 in Astana".

The law was adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic on January 23, 2019.

The purpose of the Agreement is to create a basis for the further development of economic relations between the Parties by ensuring cooperation and simplifying interaction in the areas covered by this Agreement.

The law comes into force ten days from the date of official publication.
