The Regulation on the procedure for granting land plots owned by the state has been approved

The approved Regulation determines the procedure for granting land plots owned by the state for use to individuals and legal entities, as well as state and municipal land users.

Individuals and legal entities, as well as state and municipal land users may be provided with land plots owned by the state for temporary use.

Temporary use shall be granted to land plots classified as follows: lands of residential settlements; lands of industry, transport, communications, energy, defense and other purposes; lands of agricultural purpose, except for lands of the State Fund of Agricultural Lands and Pastures.

Physical and legal entities shall be provided with land plots owned by the state by way of auctions for the right to conclude an agreement on the lease of a land plot in accordance with this Regulation.

Alienation of the right of temporary use of a land plot of the state land user, its pledge, sublease, as well as implementation of other transactions aimed directly or indirectly at encumbrance of the land plot with the rights of third parties shall not be allowed.

The resolution comes into force upon the expiration of ten days from the date of official publication.
